At the top, there is a header bar with the Zoom logo and a list of participants: Ninawari Ware, Manisha Pimpalkhare, 4883_Ayushi Dubey, St. Mira's College for..., Arwah Madan, and 4842_Narayani Singh. Below the header, a large white slide is displayed with the title "Compromising development" in bold. The slide contains a bulleted list of points:

- Structural adjustment program (SAP)- a set of economic reforms or policies that a country taking loans from IMF or World Bank has to adhere to.
- The 1991 reforms saw implementation of SAP at the centre, which had a direct bearing on the state finances, The fiscal strain on the centre made it difficult for the finance commissions even to look after the vertical imbalances.
- Thus, making it imperative for the states to maintain high degree of competitiveness by investing in social, physical infrastructure and human resources and attract investments.
- The capacity, resource endowment and financial standing of every state differed, and there was an increase in regional imbalance.

At the bottom of the Zoom window, there is a taskbar with various application icons and a system tray showing the time as 03:08 PM on 25-02-2022.

The screenshot shows a Google Meet session. At the top, there is a header bar with the text "Veena Kenchi is presenting".
