This is to certify that Anannya Sahani, a student of Pune University, has successfully completed her internship with The Right Company Pte Ltd during the following period:

17 November 2021 – 16 December 2021      Market Research Intern

During the period, she handled the following tasks:

- Identify trends and recent developments in Islamic industry based on various pillars such as halal tourism, halal supply chain, Islamic banking
- Research for competitors and their latest offerings (both in Singapore and globally)
- Consolidate report for presentation to clients

During the course of the internship, Anannya has shown responsibility, sincerity and a willingness to learn. She has been able to demonstrate that she is able to perform work independently and keep up with the deadlines and expectations of her.

We wish her all the very best for her future.

With regards,

Alvin Lim
