Hello Purva

Congratulations

As per our conversation, I would like to formally welcome you to Ascian Solution (thybookbox) as an associate editor. You shall start by the 17th of January and we can use the first week to get you all sorted and catch up.

You will be joining for 3 months as an associate editor and will be responsible for the curation and publishing of our anthology.

You will be directly working with me while using slack as a medium of communication along with emails and Notion for task management. Use the slack link to join the team: https://join.slack.com/t/ascian/shared_invite/zt-111i91mpy-m6rHrTwIqLcD~0IXXGXJw

Your First set of tasks (Ignore if already done)

1. Drop me a Confirmation Email
2. Please make sure you have slack both on your phone and laptop
3. Ping me on slack once you are there
4. Download Notion both on laptop and mobile

Let's do an onboarding call today at 9 pm and take it forward from there.

Glad to have you onboard
