Green Club Initiative- Sanitary Napkin Collection Campaign- 'Kaho Na Pad Hai'

a. On 24th Jan 2018, MJ Jyonita Deshmukh and Show Producer Sanika Mutualik of 95 Big FM were at St. Mira's College for the Sanitary Napkin Collection Campaign- 'Kaho Na Pad Hai'. The objective of this drive was to create awareness about the health benefits of using sterile sanitary napkins as against cloth, to collect sanitary napkins for women in tribal and slum areas in and around Vasai region of Maharashtra and to break the stigma attached to discussions on sanitary napkin use. The ongoing collection drive was organized by 95 Big FM in association with Mumbai based NGO Upasana. This initiative has been inspired by the upcoming movie release – 'Pad Man'.

b. Our staff and students collectively mobilized 245 packets i.e., around 2500 sanitary napkins. We sensitized the students to purchase and donate bio-degradable and cotton-based napkins as far as possible. 79 students across all faculties actively participated in the interactive session with MJ Jyonita and Sanika. 95 BIG FM was overwhelmed by the fact that we at St. Mira's had partnered them impactfully for this common cause.

Hi Mam,

Thanks for giving time and supporting an Initiative taken by BigFM.

MJ Jyonita & Team will be there at St.Meera College on 24 Jan at 11.30AM for Sanitary Pad Collection.

Attach is the poster for the same. Request you to please announce this amongst your students and faculty so that we get maximum response.

Please note that we don't want Student and Faculty to donate MONEY, they should donate the packet of Pads.

MJ Jyonita will also interact with student and will talk about the cause also.

Looking forward to have great event with St.Meera College.

Regards
