 CRITERION 6
 SWOC ANALYSIS OF CREDIT COURSES 2017-18 to 2021-22

For details of credit courses, kindly refer to NAAC Criterion 1 for annual Feedback Analysis and annual Action Taken Reports

S. N o.	PARAMETE RS	STRENGTHS	WEAKNESSES	OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES
1	Magnitude and Variety of credit courses on offer	There has been an increase in the number of courses during the assessment period 2017-18 to 2021-22 which include inclusion of new courses yearly and reruns of existing courses.[For details refer annual Credit Course List available with Criterion 1]	Since 2020-21 was a COVID pandemic year. Hence, no credit courses could be undertaken.	There is a huge opportunity to make many of the credit courses available in online mode which can be explored.
2	Conduct of Course	Mainly offline mode; except MILE courses which are conducted in online mode only
3	Nature of Credit Course	Contemporary		This practice should be continued
4	Affordability and Accessibility of the course (Fees)	Nominal fee- 15 hours -Rs 500 per student; 30 hours Rs 1000 per student; MILE courses Nil fees; PG Credit Courses- as per SPPU guidelines.		This practice should be continued
5	Value addition of Course	Bouquet of credit courses offer value addition in terms of : employability, skill development, curriculum enrichment.	However, employability potential has not translated into actual employment
6	Internship Opportunities		Only a few courses offered mainly by the Depts of English, Psychology, Accountancy and Electronics have generated internship opportunities like	There is a huge opportunity to tap internship opportunities	Needs to be explored further. Jayal

SV C ANALYSIS OF CREDIT COURSES 201 8 to 2021-22

For details of credit courses, kindly refer to NAAC Criterion 1 for annual Feedback Analysis and annual Action Taken Reports

S. N o.	PARAMETERS	STRENGTHS	WEAKNESSES	OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES
7	Employability	No of courses have an employability potential	The credit courses are of 15 hour and 30 hour duration; too short a period to ensure employment readiness	Some courses have been revised in terms of content coverage and hours and converted as Certificate and Diploma Courses [Depts of Psychology, Economics and Business Economics and Banking]. Refer year wise list of credit courses.	More courses need to be brought under the category of certificate and diploma status
8	Skill Development	Courses like Dance, Physical Fitness, Cartooning [Kinesthetic skills], Editing, Script Writing, Content Writing (written communication skill with employability potential), Foreign languages[communication and language fluency skill], Listening Skills (Listening Skills), Tally, Python Programing, Tally 9, Basic GST [curriculum enrichment with employability potential], Quantitative Aptitude and Quantitative Economics (analytical and problem solving skills), Early Childhood Care in Education (nurturing skill) , Research Methodology [research orientation and analytical skills) and so on.		The Dept of English has a Student Editing Cell which edits the College Magazine. The Dept of Sports has introduced an Adventure Sports credit course which has enthused students to trekking, increasing student engagement with Nature and promoting green consciousness.	Need to translate employability potential to actual employment.

For details of credit courses, kindly refer to NAAC Criterion 1 for annual Feedback Analysis and annual Action Taken Reports

S. N. No.	PARAMETERS	STRENGTHS	WEAKNESSES	OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES
9	Entrepreneurship		Yet to be explored	There is a huge opportunity to tap young latent entrepreneurial talent	Yet to be explored
10	Academic Enrichment	The courses on Gandhian Thought and Karl Marx (Politics and History depts), Research Methodology(Commerce Dept), Quantitative Aptitude/Techniques, Python Programming, Software Testing (Computer Science-Electronics), Quantitative Economics (Economics), Clinical Music Therapy and Dance Movement Therapy have contributed to main discipline specific academic enrichment.	They may not result in employability	Such courses present an opportunity to provide the student, a holistic perspective and a deeper subject knowledge, useful for- progression to higher studies, increasing comprehension ability, inculcating independent thinking, promoting group discussion activity, beneficial fo essay writing, competitive examination preparation.

S. N. o.	PARAMETERS	STRENGTHS	WEAKNESSES	OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES
11	Additional curriculum enrichment and value addition	Some courses have been converted into Certificate Diploma Courses by enriching /revising course content &/or extending hours for course transaction. Some of the Psychology Dept credit and certificate courses have been converted to diploma courses.(Certificate Course in Mindfulness based Counselling into a PG Diploma, Diploma in Dance Movement Therapy in to a PG Diploma; Workshop on Disability was converted into a Certificate Course in Disability : Awareness and inclusion).herapy to a PG Diploma; Workshop on Disability converted into a Certificate Course in Disability: Awareness and Inclusion ; and the Economics Dept pffered credit course on Mathematics and Statistics for Economic Analysis has been replaced by the Certificate Course in Quantitative Economics of 30 hours (2021-22).		There is a huge opportunity to extend the coverage and scope of the credit courses by their conversion to certificate and diploma courses.
12	Conduct at UG/PG level	UG credit courses are optional; PG credit courses are compulsory (as per SPPU guidelines)

SVAC ANALYSIS OF CREDIT COURSES 2018 to 2021-22

For details of credit courses, kindly refer to NAAC Criterion 1 for annual Feedback Analysis and annual Action Taken Reports

S. N. o.	PARAMETERS	STRENGTHS	WEAKNESSES	OPPORTUNITIES	CHALLENGES
13	Criteria for award of credit	50% attendance requirement and 40% pass marks			In 2020-21 no credit courses were conducted; in 2021-22, for courses conducted in 2021-22, the attendance requirement was not as strict as 50% due to hybrid mode of teaching
14	Feedback Analysis	Participant feedback is considered as constructive evidence of the need to bring about improvements in credit courses on offer. The feedback analysis is simple- Number of positive feedback responses upon Total responses expressed as a percentage. The feedback parameters are unchanged over the 5 year period. However the feedback process has become more streamlined.		Based on student curriculum and credit course feedback, new courses were designed and introduced like the Credit Course on Research Methodology (2018-19) and the B.A. Economics Special Credit Course on Mathematics and Statistics for Economic Analysis (2019-20).
15	Documentary evidence of credit award	Inclusion in student final year supplementary marksheets
