7.1.6.
Eco-friendly Ganpati idol-making and Visarjan:

In the last week of August, our girls headed by Suman and Poonam Kumari of M.Com made a 6 kg Ganesh idol out of 'shaadu mitti' or river bed clay. The clay was mixed with water to make a firm dough. Then the girls engaged themselves in giving the clay the form of 'Bappa'. The idol took about a week to dry. After that, Suman and Poonam along with a few students decorated the idol with vibrant colours. On September 2, 2019, the Ganesh Sthapana took place in the Sanctuary Hall. Everyone paid obeisance to our Green Bappa by singing Arati and distributing Prasad. On the 5th day, after Arati, staff and students involved themselves in an eco-friendly Ganesh Visarjan wherein Bappa was immersed in a tubful of water. After the mitti idol dissolved, the solvent was poured in the flower beds in the garden. Thus, Lord Ganesh met his watery abode, but with no debris polluting any water body.
